

ARMSTRONG INTERNATIONAL GAINS ADDITIONAL FLIGHTS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - March 14, 2010. The Louis Armstrong New Orleans International Airport is pleased to announce additional non-stop service to Baltimore-Washington and Nashville on Southwest Airlines and new non-stop service to Kansas City, Missouri on Delta Air Lines.

Beginning June 6, 2011, Delta Connection will begin daily non-stop service to Kansas City with Embraer Regional Jet aircraft. Southwest will increase its service to two destinations when it increases frequency to three daily non-stop flights to Nashville and Baltimore-Washington on October 3, 2011.

Mayor Mitch Landrieu stated, "We've seen renewed confidence by our air carriers in the strength of the New Orleans market and will look to continue to grow our air service to meet the demands of our residents, visitors and conventioners."

"We are excited about the increased service to these destinations by both Delta and Southwest," said Iftikhar Ahmad, Director of Aviation. "These additional flights provide our customers with increased travel flexibility."
